PRAIRIE EXPRESS TO RUN ON LIMITED SCHEDULE

In order to ensure the safety of passengers and staff of Logan County's public transportation system, the South Platte Valley Regional Transportation Authority (SPVRTA) Board has decided to run Prairie Express on a limited schedule in Sterling effective Thurs., March 19, 2020, until further notice.

During this time, Prairie Express will be running the route with one bus. Each stop will only be passed through every hour instead of every half hour.

In addition, according to SPVRTA Chairman and Logan County Commissioner Chairman Joe McBride, the board meeting scheduled for Fri., March 20 has been cancelled.

For additional information or if a concern arises call Prairie Express dispatch at 970-522-6440. Staff will attempt to address every concern in a timely manner.
